and Conflicts of Interest

Re- Adopted by the Parish Council in May 2019

Introduction

This code has been adopted by Kings Cople Parish Council as required by section 27 of the Localism Act 2011. The Council has a statutory duty to promote and maintain high standards of conduct by members and co-opted members of the council. The code sets out the standards that the council expects members to observe.

Who does the code apply to?

The code applies to all members of the Parish Council and to all co-opted members of any committee, sub committee or joint committee.

When does the code apply?

The code applies whenever a member is acting in their capacity as a member, a representative of the council or when they claim to act or give the impression of acting as a member or representative of the council. It does not seek to regulate what members do in their purely private and personal lives, unless such conduct brings the council into disrepute.

What standards of conduct are members required to observe?

When carrying out their role members should always act in accordance with the seven principles of public life, the council's PEOPLE values and the following standards;

	The seven principles of public life	Standards of conduct
A	Selflessness Holders of public office should act solely in terms of the public interest.	A.1 Serve the public A.2 Only take decisions in the public interest A.3 Treat everyone that they deal with equally and with respect and courtesy
B	Integrity Holders of public office must avoid placing themselves under any obligation to people or organisations that might try inappropriately to influence them in their work. They should not act or take decisions in order to gain financial or other material benefits for themselves, their family, or their friends. They must declare and resolve any interests and relationships.	B.1 Should declare and resolve their interests in accordance with the law and with the provisions of this code of conduct. B.2 Should not place themselves in a position where they either are, or give the appearance that they are, under any financial or other obligation to anyone that might seek to influence them in the performance of their duties as a member B.3 Should not act or take decisions in order to (or attempt to) confer or secure an advantage, disadvantage, financial gain or other material benefits for themselves, their family or close associations B.4 Should declare gifts and hospitality that they are offered whether accepted or not where the value exceeds £20 B.5 Maintain confidentiality and not disclose information given to them in confidence.

Licenses	Any licence (alone or jointly with others) to occupy land in the area of the relevant council for a month or longer
Corporate tenancies	Any tenancy where (to the persons knowledge): <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>The landlord is the relevant council; and</li><li>The tenant is a body in which the relevant person has a beneficial interest</li></ol>
Securities	Any beneficial interest in securities of a body where: <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>That body (to the persons knowledge) has a place of business or land in the area of the relevant council; and</li><li>Either:-<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>The total nominal value of the securities exceeds £25,000 or one hundredth of the total issued share capital of that body; or</li><li>If the share capital of that body is of more than one class, the total nominal value of the shares in any one class in which the relevant person has a beneficial interest that exceeds one hundredth of the total issued share capital of that class</li></ol></li></ol>

Schedule 2 interests are:

Membership of any body:

- a) exercising functions of a public nature; or
- b) directed to charitable purposes; or
- c) whose principal purposes include the influencing public opinion or policy (including any political party); or
- d) is not open to the public without formal membership.

This does not include subscription, or membership of any body to which the member is appointed or nominated by the council.'

Any gifts or hospitality which the member has been offered by virtue of their office (whether accepted or refused) where in excess of £20.

Trade Union membership.

Other declarable interests

If a matter to be considered affects the welfare or financial position (positively or negatively) of the member, a member of their family, and or a close personal associate to a greater extent than others in the member's ward: then there is a requirement to declare such an interest
